

A message from Lesley

Further update on workshops for Monday and Wednesday afternoons. We have been offered a large room in Little Lever starting Monday 23rd September at St. Matthew's Church, Market Street, Little Lever, BL3 1HH. Mondays will be in a ground floor room with access to toilets and kitchen. Wednesdays will be on the upper floor. There is plenty of parking on site and at least 2 cafes within a few yards of the venue, great for those who like to have lunch first.

We are sorry that the venue isn't in Farnworth but there was nothing available that would suit us. There was a lovely place in Westhoughton, but several members did not feel they could travel that far. At the present time this is a temporary move to cover until we can get back into New Bury which should be around Christmas time. Thursday evenings will continue at New Bury Centre and these sessions are open to all of course. I hope this solution is acceptable and wish to thank all the members who have been so helpful finding and checking places. Hope to see you all soon.

Just wanted to give a big thank you shout out to all who helped with or visited the exhibition over the Bank Holiday weekend.

Although things did not get off to the best of starts due to storm Lillian who caused chaos on Friday morning. This caused the event to be cancelled on the Friday and, although we were better off than many traders, we had a few broken frames to sort out and pictures to rehang. For the other 3 days we had plenty of visitors to our marquee and lots of paintings etc. were sold. We gave out hundreds of leaflets and chatted to people about our art circle, so hope to see one or two new faces at our workshops and demos. I know you will make them welcome. Thanks again for all your support.

New Bury Exhibition

Unfortunately the Sept 26 exhibition was cancelled due to New Bury Community Centre being taken over by Bolton College during the months of September, October, November and December. We will organise another event in the new year when the evenings get lighter.
